 - E. Chairman mentioned the School Board and more importantly finding a candidate to challenge Donna Mills, Chair of the school board.
5. Vice Chairman, Chad Miller followed with a presentation thanking all REC members and volunteers. He offered some comments describing what the REC was all about and what our mission was: Elect Republicans. We are the membership body that controls the everyday activities of the local Republican Party of Saint Lucie County

6. Committee Reports Followed:
 - A. June Lamson discussed an upcoming event for school board candidates, see website for details.
 - B. Vickie Wolf gave a report on Event Committee. The Fair was a very successful event with lots of voters stopping by the booth to meet candidates and many 40 changing voter registration. A gun show is scheduled for the next weekend as well as the upcoming Strawberry Festival and Food Truck event at Tradition. Campaign Sidekick training continues....see the REC website calendar.
 - C. Mike Decker gave an update on the Sporting Clay event. It was a great success with 94 shooters and help from many volunteers. (Mike did not mention the net receipts for the event so as secretary I am adding this figure, $14,700.) Mike introduced Kyle Kauffman. Kyle is an experienced clay shooter and event organizer who volunteered his time to make the event successful.
 - D. Chad played a post shooting event video which can be seen on our website.
7. Election of Treasurer. Chairman Nail announced that we would have an election for our open position of treasurer. Following our bylaws and Roberts Rules he called for nominations from the membership. Russell Ansley was nominated by Chad Miller and a second was made by Butch Post. Chairman Nail asked for additional nominations, not were made. Anthony Bonna called for the nominations to be closed and a voice vote proceeded. Mr. Ansley was elected with no descents
8. New Member Welcomed. Chairman Nail introduced two member candidates. Dawn Cushing and Charles Stansfield. A motion was called and seconded to accept these candidates and the motion carried. The new members were sworn in.
9. Good of the Order. Leigh Lamson reminded members of the Tea Party meeting every 1st Thursday of the month. Susan Cedenore reminded members of the Republican Women's Federated meeting next Saturday....a legislative update.
10. Having no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:10.
